The School Commissioners were badly worsted in a similar contest last year, when they dismissed Engineer Foley, of the Fifth Ward School, and appointed Thomas Curran in his place. Foley took the matter into court, and was reinstated, with all the back pay which was due to him.

Several fathers and mothers, whose children attend the First Ward School, say they will keep their children at home if an unlicensed engineer is placed in charge of the school.

Previous to his appointment as engineer Kennedy was an inspector in the Improvement Commission, and a bartender in cx-Alderman Clavin's saloon.

Mayor Gleason, of this city, has brought worth of goods stolen. When Detectives suit against School Commissioner Pe-Raleigh and Kelly arrested William suit against School Commissioner Peter McArdle to recover $25 on one of the School Commissioner's checks. Thomas P. Burke, Mr. Gleason's counsel, yeaterday gave the papers in the case to Constable Diestel to serve. The $25 represents money that Mayor Gleasons gave Mrs. McArdle on Aug. 23 for a check drawn by her husband to her order. When School Commissioner McArdle was going to Saratoga this Summer for his vacation, Mrs. McArdle asked him where she would go, It is said he told the to go to her mother. He finally gave her the check for $25. The check was drawn on the Queens County Bank, and when ex-Mayor Gleason tried to crash it payment was refused. Gleason learned, he says, that McArdle had told the bank officials not to pay the check.

CORN ON THE BOOM AGAIN.

Are Firm. Corn was on the boom again this morn ing. Trading was active, and there was considerable excitement over predictions that the Government report Monday would show a very serious depreciation from August. December sold up to 59.3cents and at Chicago to 55 1-8 cents for May. Some of the buils are talking only

1,300,000,000 bushels for the crop. Wheat l,390,000,000 bushels for the crop. Wheat made a poor second, advancing very slowly. December sold at 61 l-8 and at Chicago at 57 cents. Oats were firm, with October at 35 cents here and May 35 l-2 cents at Chicago, Cotton was stronger at the opening with considerable excitement, but the shorts seemed to be pretty well run in by yesterday's advance, and in a short time prices, which started off 2 points better than last night, were back to last evening's figures.
